

Write a descriptive paragraph using your notes to describe Grendel's swamp lair.

I can see a bright light coming from the sky reflecting on the cave. There are also weird branches surrounding the cave as if they are guarding the mysterious, dim cave. I can smell the still stagnant and smelly weed (very strong smell) coming from all around the forest (den/hideout) home/cave. I can hear distant women screaming and animals screeching whilst they are getting trampled over. The brittle trees, and the sharp edges pointing towards me as sharp as ~~knives~~ knives. The thick polluted air made everything so foggy that you could barely see. ~~The~~ The decomposed ~~body~~ bodies were filled with maggots that were slowly eating away the body which also made it smell. When people smelt that I could guarantee people would tend to vomit or even faint. The ~~thick~~ vines were slowly tangling and grabbing me. When I tried taking it off I finally did ~~by~~ but when I ~~did~~ looked back up I saw a mysterious silhouette. I squint my ^{sense} eyes and it suddenly ~~started~~ started coming towards me. Only to see ~~a~~ the beast. GRENDA L...

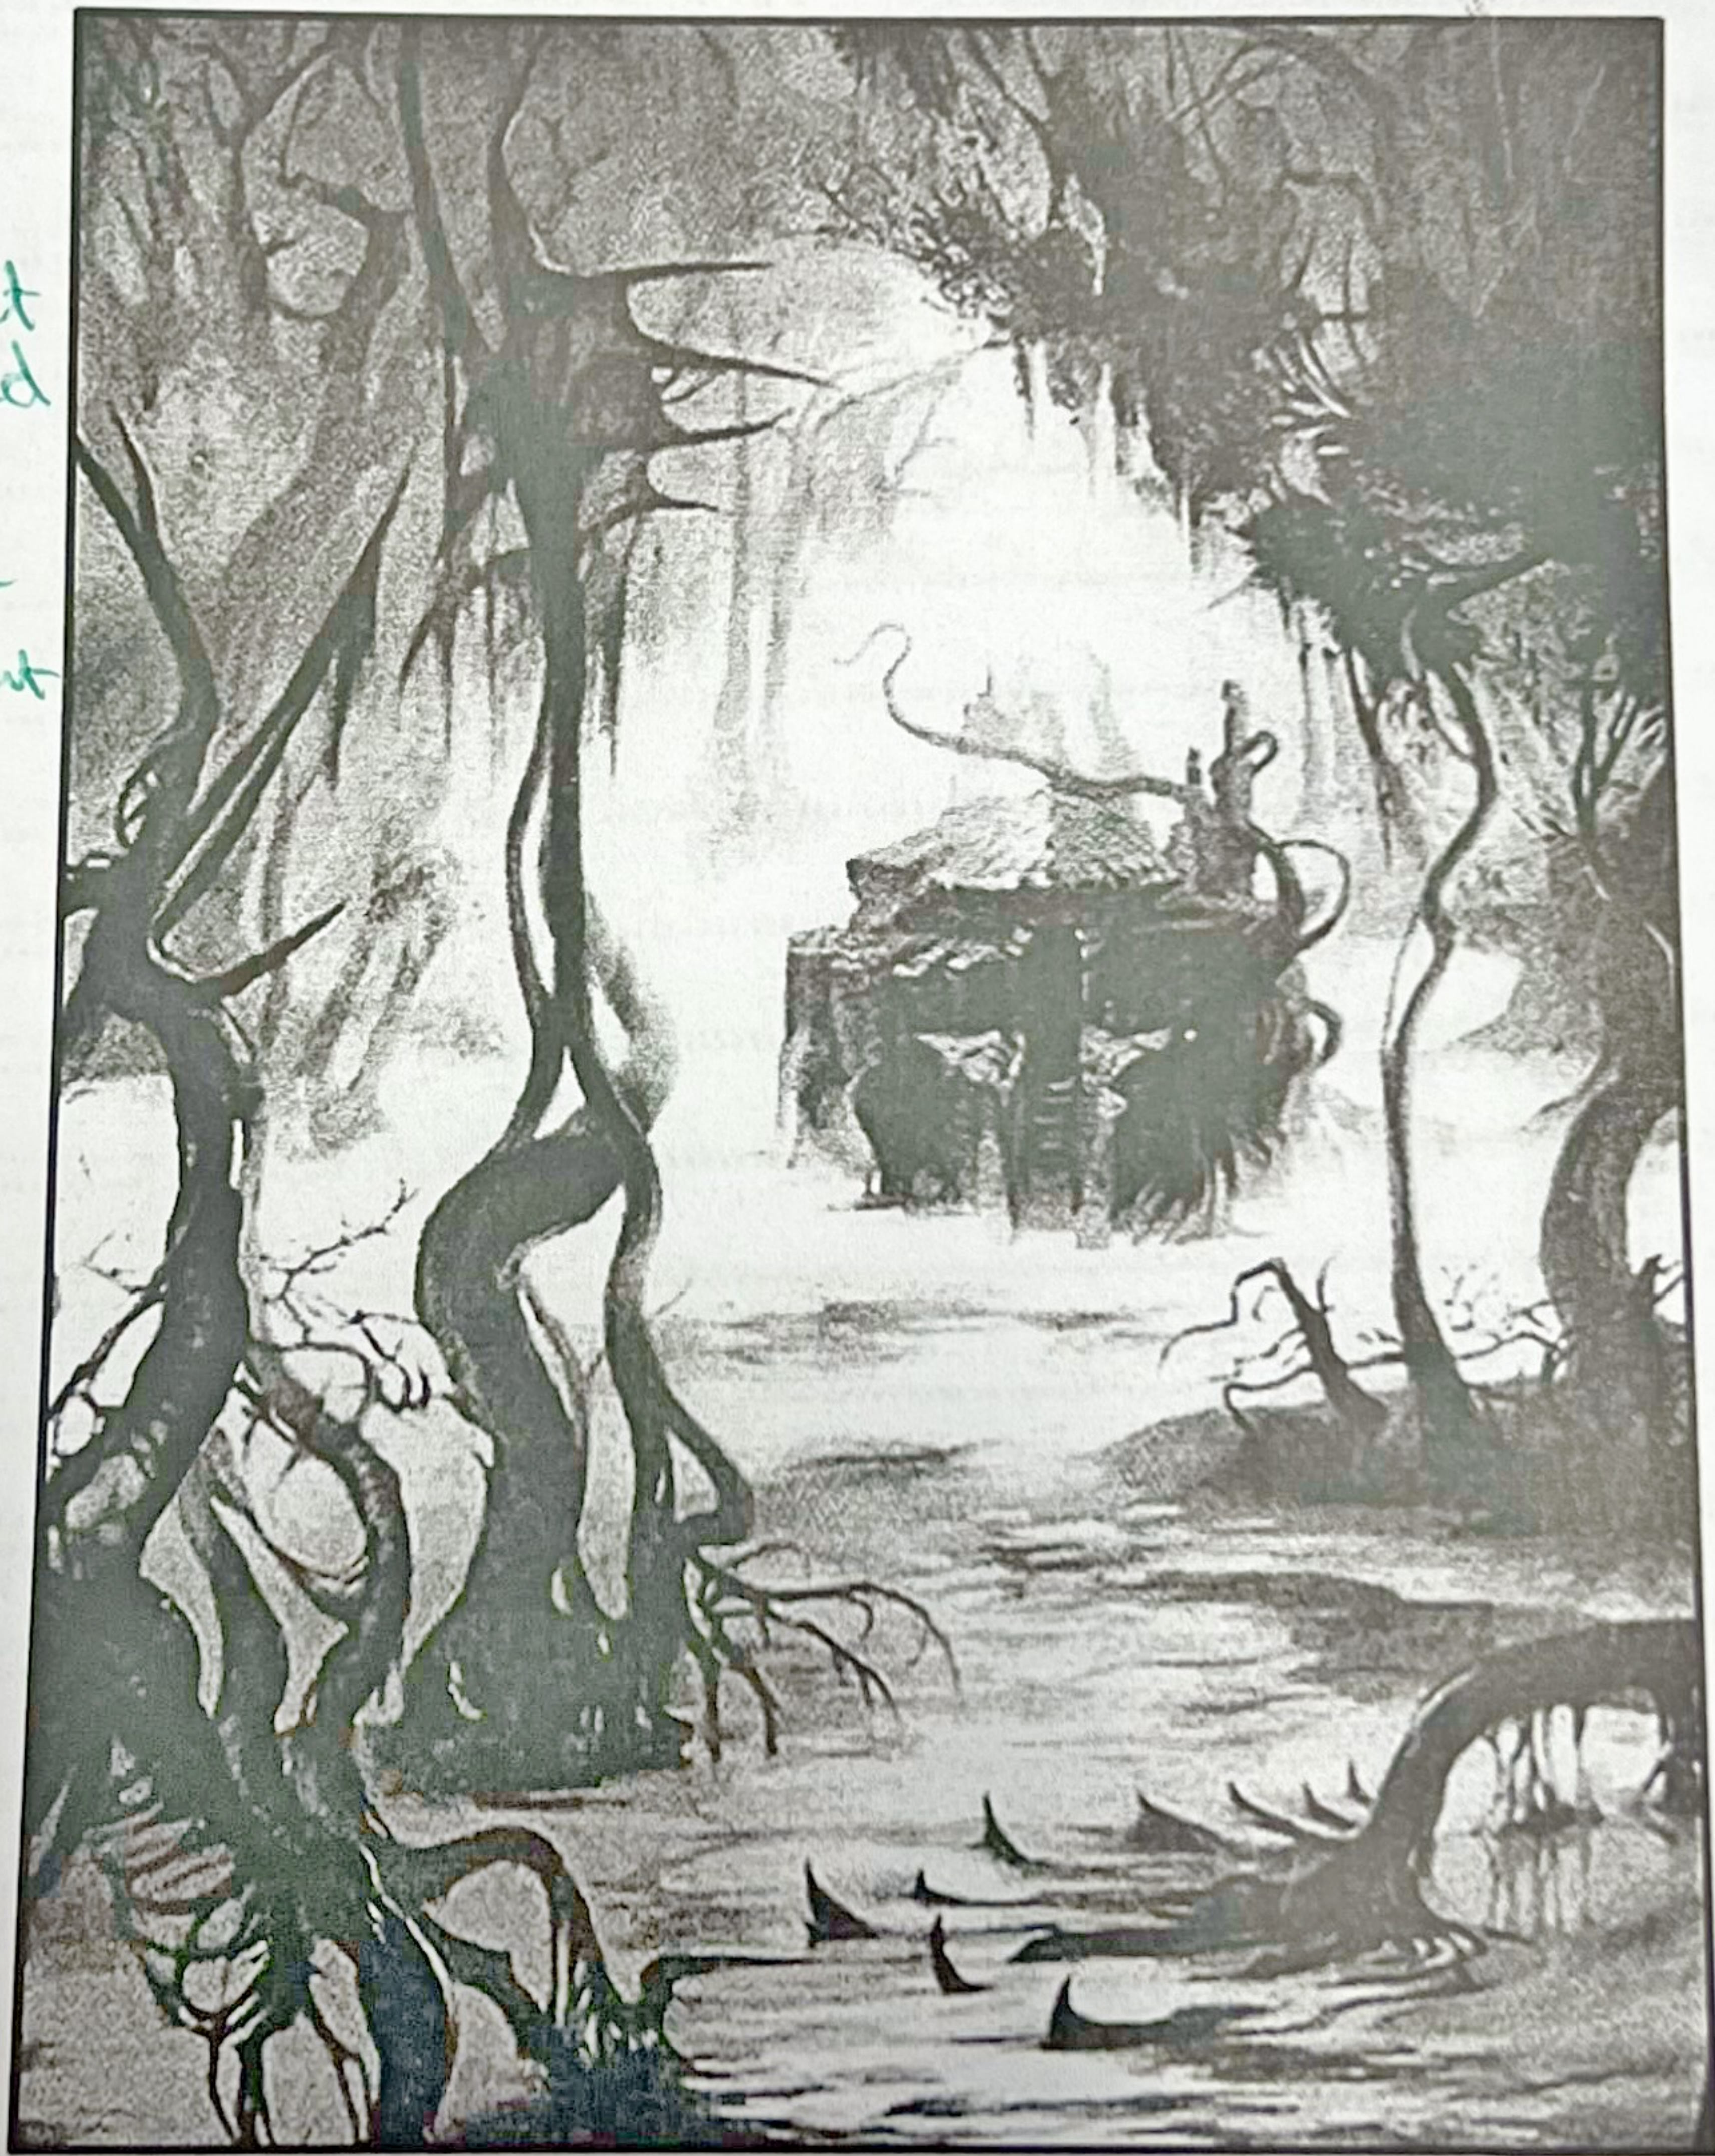

Scary
→ Creepy → Something bad will happen.

With the intention of creating a sinister and foreboding atmosphere, look at the image of Grendel's swamp lair.

Think about the five senses. Around the image write down what you can see, smell, hear, touch and taste.

See: I can see a bright light coming from the sky reflecting on the cave. There are also weird branches

~~Smell:~~ Smell: I can smell still stagnant and smelly weed coming from all around the forest / den / hideout

Hear: I can hear distant women screaming and animals screeching.