

Chapter 16

The blind old man was the only person to listen to the monster. However, when the young cottagers returned, they were afraid of the monster and chased him away. Whilst you read chapter 16, think about how the monster's abandonment changes him and fill in the table.

He hates himself.	He openly hates Victor and wants revenge	He murders a human and is unremorseful.	His interaction with society corrupts him.
"Why did I live?" This quote suggest that he didn't want to live anymore and is questioning his existence. wants victor to feel torture.	"Cursed, Cursed Creator!" This quote shows that the monster hates Victor shows that he hates victor since he called him cursed for creating him. "Unfeeling, heartless creator!"	"I, too can create desolation" Murders a kid and doesn't regret anything. "Revenge at humanity thousand other miseries shall torment him."	"No man that exists who would pity me or assist me." He has realized no body would help him in the slightest. Saved a girl when got shot.

Does the monster deserve what has happened to him? Discuss with your partner and think of 3 reasons for each argument.

Yes	No
He is a murderer that has killed many people. No one loves and people fear. Framed someone for murder	Saved a child Left alone in the world and got shot Close to death sometimes Hideous and ugly to look at
