In Stave 2 ~~the~~ Scrooge is starting to change. ~~to~~ ~~Scrooge~~ The ghost of Christmas past says 'your lip is trembling' ~~showing~~ ^{implying} his emotions are about to pour out. This is said by the ghost of Christmas past ~~showing~~ ~~when~~ as Scrooge is reacting to his childhood, and he's childhood is very significant to him. The reader may feel like Scrooge is starting to ~~grow~~ ~~more~~ change.

In Stave 2, the theme of family is ongoing when the Ghost of Christmas Past says 'A solitary child, neglected by his friends, is left there still' the word 'solitary' links back to stave 1 when the omniscient narrator describes Scrooge as 'solitary as an oyster'. Moreover, the word 'neglected' shows ~~to~~ the readers that Scrooge ~~is~~ doesn't isolate himself by choice. There's a melancholic mood created ~~staying~~ ~~to~~ representing Scrooge's past. further more the reader may feel emphatic towards scrooge in contrast to Stave 1 where scrooge refuses to give to charity
