

come, if you are quite sure nobody will hear me, and be disturbed," she added, fearing to be rude, and trembling at her own boldness as she spoke.

"Not a soul, my dear. The house is empty half the day, so come and drum away as much as you like, and I shall be obliged to you."

"How kind you are, sir

TASK: Answer the questions below based on the extract:

1. What is your first impression of Beth from this extract based on the first paragraph?

My first impression of Beth is that she's a young girl and can get scared easily and she's very worried when she does something

2. How the writer shows Beth overcoming her fear of Mr. Lawrence?

Analytical sentence – writer + verb + evidence

E.g. The writer conveys/evokes/highlights/reveals a sense of through....

Write 4 analytical sentences to show how Beth overcomes her fear of Mr Lawrence.

The writer highlights that Beth is not scared of Mr Lawrence where it states 'Beth took a step forward'. The writer highlights that Beth is not scared of Mr Lawrence where it states 'for the last arrangement nothing to be desired'. The writer conveys that Beth is not scared of Mr Lawrence where it states 'Beth looked up to him with a face full of gratitude'. The writer evokes Beth is not scared of Mr Lawrence where it states 'there's no need to speak to anyone'.

3. To what extent do you agree that Beth is successful in overcoming her fear?

I agree/disagree that Beth is successful/ unsuccessful at overcoming her fear because...

I partly agree that Beth is successful at overcoming her fear because that shows this is 'Beth took a step forward'. This suggests that she overcame her fear and she is a bit more confident.