

Use your bullet points above to complete your own poem describing who you are. Use the original poem to help you think of ideas.

Then decorate your poem with drawings/borders or things which really show your personality.

I Am

I am shy and cunning
I wonder what being an adult would be like
I hear the truth
I see my future
I want to grow up
I am shy and cunning
I pretend to be a solid heart
I feel my own dark side
I touch my future
I worry I will fail my dreams
I cry as those important to me become memories
I am gost and encoery
I understand my sculures
I say that I am true
I dream about the jobs I can do
I try to to blend in with the crowd
I hope I am successful in the future
I am shy and cunning
