

Now you know what the stereotypical features of a villain are, create your own villain. Draw them in the box below and label the features you've chosen.

Create a name for your villain, remember that writers often use names of characters to hint at their personality. Once you have chosen a name, outline the reasons behind your choice.

Berdy in his ink bath with an evil grin on his face.

Answer the following questions about your villain to create a fact file.

1. What is your character's full name? Benedy.
2. Where and when was your character born? From an ink machine.
3. Roughly, what is your character's:
 - height: 2 metres tall.
 - weight: 120 KG.
 - race: ~~###~~ demon.
 - hair and eye colour: N/A. Darkness.
 - style of dress: ink.
 - Does your character have any tattoos, scars, or distinguishing marks? Yes, inked skin.
4. Does your character have any allergies, diseases, or other physical weaknesses? no
5. Is your character right- or left-handed? Both.
6. What does your character's voice sound like? no voice.
7. What words and/or phrases does your character use very frequently? Doesn't say anything.
8. What does your character have in their pockets? no pockets.
9. Does your character have any quirks, strange mannerisms, annoying habits, or other defining characteristics? Can turn into ink using its powers for teleportation.
10. Is your character optimistic or pessimistic? NO. He feels nothing.
11. What is your character's greatest fear? Light.
12. Where does your character see themselves in 5 years? Turns back to normal. (Human.)